

Barnard Academy BEES PTO Meeting Minutes

March 6th, 2019

Attendees: Stacey Helm, Kim White, Becky Ward, Ammie Lennon, Nancy Boymer, Arlana Ruch

6:45 Meeting called to order by Stacey. (Late due to locked school, called Eben to unlock)

Presidents Report: Stacey is working on setting up a BEES Post Office box at the Barnard Post Office. Cost of $70 a year. Reg is getting the $250 gift card for Anne B. Hannah Thein has requested to list the Teachers and/or Principal's report at 'Schools Report'. The Twin Farms dinner tickets sold fast and seating arrangements have been completed by Meg Johnson and Stacey. Two different types of apples, kiwi's, and clementine's arrived today, Wednesday March 6th!! Order came to $164, we will see how it lasts and how to move forward with orders. School Bus bill for Ski-runners has been paid for. Waiting to pay Woodstock Inn. Stacey has been heading the Thank you banner for Twin Farms, the Pre-K picked the theme 'Winter Wind'!!:)

Secretary's Report approved by Kim White, seconded by Becky and Stacey.

Treasurers Report: Presented annual report. Becky spoke of looking into new software technology, that would consist of up to date faster and efficient technology, averaging $4800. Discussion and research is on the table to decide and figure out if BEES will provide funding. Potential funding can be used from funds raised at Twin Farms dinner.

School's Report: The school recently conducted a survey for the kids, what they do and don't like. Some of the questions and stats are posted on boards in cross section of halls. Jessica or Mrs. H., the school's social worker, is going to have a social skills clinic in each class. The main theme and guidance will be directed towards kindness and how to treat others. S.O.S. date TBD

DATES: April 1s: Artist in Residency, April 10th: 6pm Performance, May 2 & 3: 2nd-6th end of year Museum trip, SBAC testing again Sometime in April TBD.

Spring Fling: May 10th 5:30pm Amie accepted proposal to lead and organize event! Details to be discussed at next meeting.

Teacher's Appreciation: To discuss at next April meeting!

Meeting adjourned: 8:05